Today's L.O (Learning Objective): Can I research a country of my choice?	What you think:  Teacher

Success Criteria: To do this well I:

- Must: Find out interesting facts about a country and write and draw about them.
- Should: Think of interesting questions and find ways to research them.
- Could: Write down my own ideas about a country and compare it to other countries.

Which country are you learning about?
Why are you interested in it?
What sources will you use to research it? Write the names of books, websites, people, and so on that you found out things from.

What questions can you think of? What would you like to learn?

Write and draw interesting things that you learned:
